AUBURN vs. SOUTH CAROLINA THIS WEEK

One Southeastern Conference equestrian competition is slated for this week as No. 2 South Carolina entertains No. 4 Auburn at 2 p.m. ET on Friday in Blythewood, S.C.

Each of the SEC's four equestrian programs are ranked among the nation's top-10, according to the latest NCEA National Team Rankings, announced Tuesday.

Georgia, the 2015 NCEA runner-up and defending Southeastern Conference Champion, is the nation's No. 1 team. South Carolina, the 2015 NCEA National Champion, checks in at No. 2. The Gamecocks claimed their third overall national title this past April. Auburn, a national semifinalist a year ago, is ranked No. 4, while Texas A&M is No. 7.

The four current members of the SEC are the only teams in the history of the sport to win NCEA Overall Team National Championships. Georgia has tallied a league-leading six overall NCEA national championships, including three consecutive from 2008-10. Auburn and South Carolina have won three overall national titles, while Texas A&M has two overall national titles to its credit. The Gamecocks are the defending NCEA Champions.

The 2016 SEC Equestrian Championship is slated for March 25-26 at Bishop, Ga., and will be hosted by the University of Georgia.
